

INTERNATIONAL IP ENFORCEMENT SUMMIT
STOCKHOLM JUNE 22-23 2021

Save-the-date

International IP Enforcement Summit, 22 – 23 June 2021, Stockholm, Sweden

Following earlier editions in London (2014), Berlin (2017) and Paris (2019), the fourth International IP Enforcement Summit will take place on 22 and 23 June 2021 at the Royal College of Music in Stockholm, Sweden. The Summit will bring together key European and international decision-makers, law enforcement authorities, multinational companies and other relevant players to discuss ways to improve protection and enforcement of IP rights in the EU and around the globe.

The Summit aims to bring strategic and practical guidance and share good practices on how the fight against counterfeit and piracy should contribute to a healthier society, a more sustainable environment and a stronger economy. Unique in this edition is that the participating right holders, intermediaries, law enforcement authorities and other stakeholders will be invited to endorse a joint declaration which should aim at improving effective cooperation for better IPR enforcement.

Invitations will be sent closer to the date with a link for registration.

We look forward to welcoming you in Stockholm .

The International IP Enforcement Summit Partners

The Swedish Intellectual Property Office, PRV, is the authority for intellectual property in Sweden. We constantly work with cutting edge ideas which enable us to strengthen Sweden's growth and competitiveness.

European Commission

The European Commission has responsibility for ensuring that appropriate mechanisms of protection and enforcement of IP rights are in place in the EU and in third countries.

The European Union Intellectual Property Office (EUIPO) is the EU agency responsible for managing the EU trade mark and the registered Community design. In 2012, the Office was given the responsibility for the European Observatory on Infringements of Intellectual Property Rights which works to support the protection and enforcement of IP rights.
